

ROSSER &amp; McCARTHY,

Publishers and Proprietors,
TO WHOM ADDRESS ALL COMMUNICATIONS

Go on, good boys, and swing your hats
And still keep up the shout;
We horny-handed Democrats
Have turned the rascals out.
—[Frankfort Yeoman.]

The steamer Hattie Brown left for Ashland Saturday night to bring down a tow of coal.

The Uniform Patriarchs of the Odd Fellows meet at their Hall to-night, and a full attendance is desired as business of importance will come before them.

THERE is great complaint among the farmers of this county that their crop of small grain is being eaten up by the fly. Many of them think one-half the present crop is already destroyed. Mr. Caldwell, of Washington, is now re-sowing his wheat, hoping to get a partial yield.

The churches were all largely attended yesterday, the day was pleasant and the presidential excitement over, and the people felt joyous and happy, hence the churches were all full, both morning and evening, "go thou and do likewise," so we say to all the people in all the land.

It will be very hard upon the revenue officers who have soon to catch up their duds and make tracks out of office, to know that in betting upon "the plumed knight," they have lost all the money they saved from their salaries for the last year and more. To lose both money and office, will be a calamity with some hard to bear.

THE Democrats of Lewis County had a grand jubilation, on Saturday night last, over the election of Cleveland and Hendricks, and to add to the exhilaration of the occasion news came by telegraph, that the count had ended, and the result showed that Cleveland's plurality was found to be 1,147. Several eloquent and patriotic speeches were made and the occasion passed off altogether most pleasantly.

At the earnest solicitation of a number of leading citizens, Messrs. Chamberlain and Ruth will soon commence a class of vocal instruction. Lists for subscribers may be found at the stores of G. W. Blatterman, Harry Taylor and the office of the Morning Call. As Mr. Chamberlain is a gentleman who has spent the greater part of a half century in the capacity of public instructor, and Mr. Ruth, though a younger man, is a fine basso and an excellent pianist, there is no reason why our people should withhold their patronage. Their presence here fills a long-felt want.

At Farewell Hall, last evening, Philip Phillips, the "Singing Pilgrim," gave a unique and interesting entertainment which he styles, "Around the World in a Chariot of Song." Mr. Phillips has traveled extensively in all parts of the globe, and last night he gave an account of a large number of places he had visited, illustrating his narrative with numerous dissolving views, graphic and well-selected, introducing many entertaining illustrative songs, sung in his own peculiar and pleasing way. The audience last night was quite large, and, judging from the frequent and hearty applause, it seemed to give infinite satisfaction in this cheap, easy and novel way of "seeing the world."—[Chicago Daily Times.]

Mr. Phillips will appear this and tomorrow evening at the Third Street M. E. Church.

It appears that Wadsworth beats Powers in the Greenup, Ky., district by three hundred. Still Powers should contest. When a car load of negroes are voted at Grayson, and no telling at how many other places in the district, there should be a fair count.—Portsmouth Times.

Wadsworth's official majority is only about one hundred and two as reported; but there were enough errors in all the counties, some such as above, or thus, when the polls were opened and closed at such hours as were not authorized by law, the purchase of votes, and where the judges had disqualified themselves by betting on Wadsworth's success, as to make it quite certain that Mr. Wadsworth would not be allowed to take his seat at a contest is made.

DEMOCRATIC talk about the thugs and thieves who acted as Deputy United States Marshals at the election in Cincinnati in October, has ceased entirely since the November election, when Hamilton County doubled the Republican majority she gave in October.—Lexington Nation.

Yes, Democratic talk has ceased, but the memory of that disgraceful employment of Government revenue officers, as Deputy Marshals at Cincinnati, is still alive and will continue fresh as long as any of that breed of Republicans continue to hold federal offices. The thugs and thieves "who acted as Deputy Marshals," to terrorize and bulldoze the Democratic voters at Cincinnati, had better be a little modest now, for it may not be long before the gulotine which is whetting now for some of their necks, will be performing its just work.

Fire.

About half-past eleven o'clock last night a fire broke out in the frame building on Second street, occupied by Watson & Co. and James T. Kackley, which for a moment bid fair to be disastrous. It is supposed to have been either the work of an incendiary or the result of a defective flue, though no fire is believed by many to have been in the house yesterday or last night. The roof was instantly all in a flame, and but for the prompt and efficient services of our fireman and the admirable facilities of the city water works, the whole square would have been destroyed. It was in the very centre of the business part of our city and if not so speedily arrested great destruction would have ensued to valuable property. The buildings belonged to Dr. William H. McGranaghan and were insured in the London and Lancashire Company in the sum of $2,000.

The stock of Watson & Co. was insured at the sum of $5,200 which it is believed will cover the loss. The stock was insured in the Liverpool, London and Globe Company for $3,000 and in the Lancashire Company at $2,200.

The photographic stock of James T. Kackley was valued at $10,000 and was insured in the following companies as follows:

Scottish Union.....	$1,000
American.....	1,000
Imperial.....	1,000
Royal.....	1,500
Mercantile.....	1,500
Providence and Washington.....	1,500

Debate.

A debate between Rev. J. S. Kendrick, of the Christian Church, and Rev. J. W. Fitch, of the M. E. Church, South, Kentucky Conference, will begin at Tollesboro, Ky., Wednesday, November 19th, and continue for eight days. The following propositions will be discussed: 1. The baptism instituted by the Lord Jesus Christ is immersion. (Kendrick affirms.) 2. Infant baptism is taught in the holy scriptures. (Fitch affirms.) 3. Baptism to the believing penitent for the remission of past sins. (Kendrick affirms.) 4. In regeneration or the new birth the holy spirit operates directly and immediately upon the person regenerated or born again. (Fitch affirms.) The public is cordially invited.

THE rush for office by the Democrats on the theory that Cleveland is elected has already commenced. Wait a while, gentlemen! There is plenty of time, and besides, the result of the official canvass of the vote of New York may upset all of your fine calculations.—Lexington Nation.

The rush out of office by the Republican revenue officers will be quite as great in a short time, as the rush for office by the democrats. The result of the official canvass of the vote of New York is now determined and well known, but it upsets no calculations so much as it does the calculations of the Republicans in office, who have been hoping to find some mistake, or error, or pretence, upon which they could claim the tainted man.

THE defeat of Frank Powers is the only black spot in the Kentucky election. He deserved an election, and the result shows that a determined effort would have easily given it to him.—[Frankfort Capital.]

A very determined effort was made to elect him, and a very large democratic vote was cast in his favor, but all this could not overcome the negro vote imported into the district for Wadsworth, the money and bribery made use of by Wadsworth's friends, and the treachery of a few democrats who follow the lead of a few cranks who profess democracy but do not practice it.

THE Republicans of Washington City were allowed to take the U. S. Military Band to celebrate the Republican victory in Ohio in October last; but when the Democrats applied for it to celebrate the victory the people of the country achieved in the election of Grover Cleveland to the Presidency, Mr. Lincoln, the Secretary of War, refused to let them have it. This shows that Mr. Robert Lincoln is a much smaller man than honest old Abe, his father.

THE Illinois Legislature is said now to be Democratic, and away goes John A. Logan from the United States Senate. A Democrat will take his place after the fourth of March next. It is also said Riddleberger, of Virginia, has cut loose from Gen. Mahone. If things continue to move in this line it will not be long before the United States Senate will be Democratic.

An Honest Man.

[Chilliothe Advertiser.]

It was not Cleveland's overpowering intellect that elected him; it was not his wit, his brilliancy, nor his magnetism, but his unflinching honesty and sterling integrity. Cleveland's election gives the lie to the charge that we are a nation of rascals.

Letter From Texas.

BRENNHAM, TEXAS, November 9, 1884.
Editor Bulletin: I was a guest to-day of Henry Harrison, Esq., of this place, and at dinner given in commemoration of the forty-seventh anniversary of the marriage of Judge James E. Shepard to Miss Martha Andrews, of Flemingsburg, Kentucky. The occasion was interesting, most pleasant and agreeable and worthy of noting for the reminiscence. Fifty years ago Judge James E. Shepard and I were school-fellows at Oxford, Ohio, aged respectively fourteen and fifteen years. It is not often that school-mates after a separation of fifty years meet two thousand miles from the scenes of their boyhood and at a festive board. Almost grown representatives of a third generation, as in this instance, represented unto James Shepard and wife. Passing from Mr. Harrison's I visited Hon. Chauncey B. Shepard, with whom I was at school when John Quincy Adams was President of the United States. The Shepards are noted among the most eminent and distinguished men in Texas, and Colonel Seth Shepard, son of C. B. S., the superior of any man of his age in the State as a lawyer and orator.

Yours truly, S. A.

Cure for Piles.

Piles are frequently preceded by a sense of weight in the back, loins and lower part of the abdomen, causing the patient to suppose he has some affection of the kidneys or neighboring organs. At times, symptoms of indigestion are present, as flatulency, uneasiness of the stomach, etc. A moisture, like perspiration, producing a very disagreeable itching, after getting warm, is a common attendant. Blind, bleeding and itching piles yield at once to the application of Dr. Bosanque's Pile Remedy, which acts directly upon the parts affected, absorbing the tumors, slaying the inflamed tissue, and affording a permanent cure. Price 50 cents. Address Dr. Bosanque Medicine Co., Piqua, O. Sold by Geo. T. Wood.

George T. Wood, the Druggist, who has been looking after the interest of customers, has now secured the sale of Dr. Bosanque's cough and lung syrup, a remedy that never fails to cure coughs, colds, pains in the chest, and all lung affections. Price 50 cents and $1.00 samples free.

A SINGLE FACT

Is Worth a Ship-Load of Argument.

CARTERSVILLE, GA.

This will certify that two members of my immediate family, after having suffered for many years from menstrual irregularity, and having been treated without benefit by various medical doctors, were at length completely cured by one bottle of Dr. J. Bradfield's Female Regulator. Its effect on such cases is wonderful, and well may the remedy be called "Woman's Best Friend."

Yours respectfully,

JAMES W. STRANGE.

ENTIRE AND ABSOLUTE SUCCESS.
Maj. John C. Whitner, of Atlanta, well and favorably known all over the United States as a General Insurance Agent, says: "I used this remedy before the war on a large plantation in a great number of cases, always with absolute success."

Dr. J. Davis, of Milledown, Ala., writes: "I have used Bradfield's Regulator extensively in my practice with entire success. If it is not a specific, it is in my opinion, the best known remedy for the diseases for which it is recommended."

A lady of Bonham, Texas, writes: "I have been using your Female Regulator for several weeks and with great benefit. My case is of long standing, and has baffled many physicians. I have tried every medicine I could hear of, but the Regulator is the only one that has ever relieved my distressing sufferings."

NOTASKEGA, ALA.

Dr. J. Bradfield's Female Regulator has been thoroughly tested by me in a great variety of cases, and I am fully convinced that it is unequalled for that class of diseases which it claims to cure. J. C. HUSS, M. D.
